 Wake up, there's a new day dawning
 E A
 I think I'll take a little walk for a while

 I need shades cause the sun is blinding
 E A
 And I can see for miles and miles
E A E A
 Yeah I can feel the earth beneath me, I lie down we are as one
E A E A
 They look but they cannot find me, I'm off and heading for the sun
C#m A C#m A
 I'm getting colder, I feel a chill in the air
C#m A
 There's a change in the weather
C#m G#m A E
 Here it comes again, now I can feel the rain

 The wind that brings on the change is taking me over
 D
 The wind that brings on the rain is making me older
E A E A
 Downtown, the moon is shining, I'm gonna dress it up in style
 E A E A
 My business everybody's minding, I need to get away for a while
