Faithfull

Plaque on the wall says that no one's slept here
It's rare to come upon a bridge that has not been around or been stepped on Whatever the notions we laced in our prayers
The man upstairs is used to all of this noise
I'm through with screaming
An echo nobody hears, it goes, it goes, it goes
Like echoes nobody hears, it goes, it goes, it goes like this

We're faithful, we all believe, we all believe it (x4)

An echo nobody hears, it goes, it goes, it goes
An echo nobody hears, it goes, it goes, it goes like this

We're faithful, we all believe, we all believe it (x4)

M.Y.T.H is belief in the game. Controls.

That keeps us in a box of fear
We never listen, voice inside so drowned out, drowned you are
You are, you are a furry thing and everything is you
Me you, you me, it's all related what's a boy to do?
Just be darling and I will be too faithful to you.
