Coming out the woodwork, thru the open door pushing from above and below shadows without substance, in the shape of men round and down and sideways they go adrift without direction, eyes that hold despair then as one they sign and they moan

Help us someone, let us out of here living here so long undisturbed dreaming of the time we were free so many years ago
before the time when we first heard welcome to the Home by the Sea

Images of sorrow, pictures of delight things that go to make up a life endless days of summer longer nights of gloom waiting for the morning light scenes of unimportance like photos in a frame things that go to make up a life

before the time when we first heard
welcome to the Home by the Sea
