

A Day In A Life - The Beatles

(G)(intro) (Bm) (Em) (Em7) (C)
(C)
(G)I read the (Bm)news today, oh (Em)boy, (C)about a (Em)lucky man who (Am)made the grade (Cmaj7)
(G)And thought the (Bm)news were rather (Em)sad, (C)well I just (F)had to laugh
(Em) (E?)
(C)I saw the (F)photograph (Em) (Cmaj7)

(G)He blew his (Bm)mind out in a (Em)car, (C)he didn't (Em)notice that the (Am)l ights had changed (Cmaj7)
(G)A crowd of (Bm)people stood and (Em)stared, (C)they'd seen his (F) face before (Em)Nobody was really sure if (E?)he was from the House of (C)Lords

(G)I saw a (Bm)film today, oh (Em)boy, (C)the england (Em)army had just (Am)won the war (Cmaj7)
(G)A crowd of (Bm)people turned a(Em)way, (C)but I just (F)had to look (Em)Having (E?)read the (C)book
I'd love to (Bm)turn (G)you (G?)on (E)

(E)Wake up, fell out of bed, dragged a combed across my (D)head Found my (E)way downstairs and (F#m7)dranked a cup, and (E)looking up I (F#m7)no ticed I was late (E)Grabbed my coat, and grabbed my hat, made the bus in seconds (D)flat Found my (E)way upstairs and (F#m7)had a smoke, and (E)somebody spoke and I (F#m
7)went into a dream

(C)Ahhhhh... (G) (D) (A) (C)
)Ahhhhh... (G)
(D) (A)

(G)I read the (Bm)news today, oh (Em)boy, (C)four thousand (Em)holes in Blackbur
n (Am)Lacanshire (Cmaj7)
(G)And though the (Bm)holes were rather (Em)small, (C)they had to (F) count them all (Em)Now they know how many holes it (E?)takes to fill the Albert (C)Hall
I'd love to (Bm)turn (G)you (G?)on (E)
