D#m B C#
D#m
i'm always wanting more
          C# anything i haven't got D#m everything
i want it all
             C#
i just can't stop
D#m
planning all my days away
but never finding ways to stay D#m
or ever feel enough today tomorrow must be more drink more dreams more bed more drugs
more lust more lies more head more love more fear more fun more pain more flesh more stars more smiles more fame more sex but however hard i want i know deep down inside
D#m i'll never really get more hope B C#
           D#m
or any more time
any more time
i want the sky to fall in i want lightning and thunder i want blood instead of rain i want the world to make me wonder i want to walk on water take a trip to the moon give me all this and give me it soon more drink more dreams more drugs

more lust more lies more love but however hard i want i know deep down inside i'll never really get more hope or any more time any more time any more time any more time
