You Found Me - The Fray

```
E B G#m
I found god
        В
     F#
On the corner of first and Amistad
E B G#m F# B
Where the west was all but won
E B G#m F#
            B E
All alone smoking his last cigarette
     E B G#m
                  F# B E
I Said where you been, he said ask anything
VERSE 1
G#m F# E
Where were you?
F# B
When everything was falling apart
G#m F# E F# B E
All my days were spent by the telephone
 F# BE
It never rang
  F# B
And all I needed was a call
 F# B E
That never came
     G#m F#
To the corner of first and Amistad
CHORUS
G#m E
Lost and insecure
B F#
You found me, you found me
G#m E
Lying on the floor
B F#
Surrounded, surrounded
G#m
Whyd you have to wait?
            F#
Where were you? Where were you?
          \mathbf{E}
Just a little late
           F# B
You found me, you found me

VERSE 2

G#m F# E F# B E In the end everyone ends up alone G#m F# E F# B E Losing her, the only one whos ever known B E G#m F# Who I am, who Im not, who I want to be B F# E F# B No way to know how long she will be next to me CHORUS G#m E Lost and insecure F# You found me, you found me G#m E Lying on the floor B F# Surrounded, surrounded Whyd you have to wait?
