World Behind My Wall - Tokio Hotel

verse 1:
Its raining today, the blinds are shut.
Its always the same.
                  A#m
I tried all the games that they play,
but they made me insane.
Life on TV its random,
it means nothing to me.
                  A#m Im writing down what I cannot see wanna wake up in a dream.
Chorus:
Oh, oh.
Theyre telling me its beautiful.
I believe them, but will I ever know
the world behind my wall.
Oh, oh.
                         Δm
The sun will shine like never before.
                   F
One day I will be ready to go,
see the world behind my wall.
verse 2:
Trains in the sky are travelling through fragments of time.
                     A#m Theyre taking me to parts of my mind that no one can find.
Im ready to fall.
                                                 Am
Im ready to crawl on my knees to know it all.
