Shadow - Austin Mahone

```

     You walk into the room
So perfect but unaware
Making me stop and stare
Every time I heard he broke your heart
        Am
Can I just fix you girl?
            F
Show you a different world?
G
                    Am
       I'll take you anywhere
F
       I'll put you on a throne
G
       I'll lay down my heart, I swear
And I'll make sure that you'll never be alone
G
     G
Only my shadow knows
  How I feel about you
Only my shadow goes
  Where I dream of you and me
Am
Should I go or wait?
Is it too soon, too late?
   Only my shadow knows

     I've been loving you so long
               Am
And now that I got the chance
I see you need to dance on your own
So I'll wait another day
      Am

I'm gonna be right here, oh
