

Blood Is Thicker Than Water - Black Label Society

Em                                  A

Here comes the rain

C                              Em

Another day, another storm

A                              C

I've been down,down, down

Em

For oh, so long

[illegible]

They try to break me but I refuse to die
They try to break me but I refuse to cry

Here comes the rain
Another day, another storm

I'll walk this mile
And I'll ask no quarter
For in the end
Blood is thicker than water
