                                  Dm
   Every night, I'm lying in bed, holding you close in my dreams
   Thinking about all the things that we said, and coming apart at the seams
                      Dm
F.m
                                  Εm
   We try to talk it over, but the words come out too rough
   I know you were trying to give me the best of your love

                                          Dm
   Beautiful faces, and loud empty places, look at the way that we live
                                           Dm
   Wasting our time on cheap talk and wine, left us so little to give

                                 Dm
                                                      Em

  That same old crowd was like a cold dark cloud that we could never rise above
                           Dm
   But here in my heart, I give you the best of my love

   It was a quiet night and I would be all right if I could go on sleeping
                                         Dm
   But every morning I wake up and worry, what's gonna happen today?
                                                  Dm
   You see it your way, and I see it mine, but we both see it slipping away
