stoplight lock the door
don't look back undress in the dark and hide from you
all of you
C D A
You'll never know the way your words have haunted me I can't believe you'd ask these things of me you don't know me
Em D
You belong to me

Wake up in a dream
frozen fear
all your hands on me
I can't scream, I can't scream
I can't escape the twisted way you think of me
I feel you in my dreams and I don't sleep
I don't sleep
