Penny&me - Hanson

Strum softy
G / B G / C G / B D D / G C / G
G / B G / C G / B D D / G C / G
Steady strum
${\tt G}$ / ${\tt B}$ $$
G / B D
I can see it in your eyes under the moon as he plays \mathbf{C} / \mathbf{G}
Like music every line
G / B D
There's a rope with a bleeding eye under the fan D

```
C / G
D
Close our eyes pretend to fly, it's always
D -- hit once and mute
Penny and me tonight
G / B G / C G / B ... D D / G C / G --pull off1st finger on 2nd string C at end of strum
G / B G / C G / B ... D D / G C / G --pull off1st finger on 2nd string C at end of strum
G / B
                                                  D
Summer nights under the city lights and it's just Penny and I
All alone beneath the sky
G / B
                                               D
Though the wind brushes slowly by, if I could so try
C / G
To take these wings and fly
G / B
Would you wear the legion red
Cadd9 / G
No matter where I am instead
```

Cadd9 C

....And Penny and me like to gaze at starry skies

```
and drown her pain in lemonade

       B7 / E
Penny dreams of rainy days
And nights up late by the fireplace
Asus4
And aimless conversations about the better days...
G / B G / C G / B ..... D D / G C / G
G / B G / C G / B ... D D / G C / G --pull off1st finger on 2nd string C at end of strum

Singing alone she's feeling alright.....yeah
                              C / G
We'll get by in the faint moonlight, it's always
D -- hit once and mute
Penny and me tonight
G / B
.... Cause Penny and me like to D C / G G / B
roll the windows down,
... Turn the radio up and Αm
Push the pedal to the ground
                               D C
....And Penny and me like to gaze at starry skies
                          Cadd9
Close our eyes pretend to fly,
                          C / G
Close our eyes pretend to fly, it's always
Penny and me
