Nobody's Perfect - Jessie J

```
Verse 1:

Em
When I'm nervous I have this C thing yeah I talk too much
G
Sometimes I just can't
D / F#
shut the hell up
Em
It's like I need to tell
C
someone anyone who'll listen
G
```

Em C G D / F#

```
Εm
If I could turn back the hands of time
I swear I never woulda crossed that line
                                   D / F#
I should have kept it between us but no I went and told the whole world how Im f
eelin ah
So I sit and I realize with these tears fall from my eyes
D / F#
I gotta change if I wanna keep you forever I promise that Im gonna try
Εm
But I never meant to hurt you,
I know it's time that I learnt to Treat the people I love like I wanna be loved
    D / F#
This is a lesson learnt,
\operatorname{Em}
I hate that I let you down
and I feel so bad about it
I guess karma comes back around
D / F#
                                 (optional) D
cause now I'm the one that's hurting yeah
And I hate that I made you think that the trust we had is broken
So don't tell me you can't forgive me
```

D / F#

C

Εm

G

D / F#

```
I hate that I let you down
and I feel so bad about it
I guess karma comes back around
                                (optional) D
D / F#
cause now I'm the one that's hurting yeah
And I hate that I made you think
that the trust we had is broken
So don't tell me you can't forgive me
D / F#
Cause nobody's perfect, no.
                   C
                            G
                                    D / F#
I hate that I let you down
and I feel so bad about it
I guess karma comes back around
                                (optional) D
cause now I'm the one that's hurting yeah
And I hate that I made you think
that the trust we had is broken
So don't tell me you can't forgive me
D / F#
Cause nobody's perfect, no.
Em
                            G
                                    D / F#
                   C
```